

Business Planning and Partner Agreement

Become Our Partners at Every Stage

To become a Distributor with Accely: You need to have a considerable number of channel partner, backed with at least 3 years of experience in software distributorship business.

To become a Partner with Accely: Your company should be in the business of selling software in the B2B segment for at least 2 years and have a running sales team.

To become a Service Provider with Accely: Your company should be in the Healthcare or related sector, established as a managed service to end enterprise customers with at least 2 years of experience.

To become a Insurance Companies with Accely: Insurance companies are welcome to partner with us to embed our product and reduce the cost of insurance claims and delivery.

Here's a Blueprint for the OnBoarding Process

- Register: Register yourself for the Partnership project.
- Contract: Sign the partnership agreement with us, once you're clear with the clauses.
- Training: Receive the required training to run seamless operations.
- Accreditation: Get your employees certified with Accely's accreditation.
- Value Addition: With a finely trained team and a great support team in the backend, time to add value to the customers.
- Wins: With a great service and an excellent product, time to celebrate your wins!